Sorry—our newsletter editor has been away so the June newsletter is limited to two pages...please pass the information to any member you know who might not have email...no snail mail this month. Susan will return to Windsor on Tuesday.

Mary Kate Brogan's romance novel, A Daddy for Danny, set in Grosse Pointe, Michigan, with scenes in Windsor was released in May. Indigo bookstore in Tecumseh will carry A Daddy for Danny for the month of July. Mary Kate will be signing copies outside Cole's in the Tecumseh Mall at the July 19 sidewalk sale, from 2--5 p.m.

Chapters may take the book on consignment for the month of July but, as yet, this is uncertain. If anyone is interested in buying the book from Chapters' Windsor store in July, it would be great if you could check in July to see if they are carrying it. Chapters' phone number is 519-250-1005. The novel can be accessed on the net by going to <http://www.wings-press.com>

The following url will take you right to the page:

The Association of Representational Artists was formed in 1978 and is considered one of the oldest art organizations in Essex County. It was started as a way for artists to network together, learn new skills and show their work as a group. There are currently more than Representational Artists was formed in sixty members of this group. Workshops and classes are conducted through the guidance of professional members. Each artist is encouraged to develop their own style. The ARA provides members the opportunity to show their artworks and increase the ability to interact with potential buyers. The groups meets once a month and often paint together during the summer months.

Background Art by George Alles

Art washes away from the soul the dust of everyday life.

Pablo Picasso

Painting is just another way of keeping a diary.
