Monthly painting challenge

New location for September

Our president Leona McIntyre and executive committee is pleased to announce our new place for general meeting:

Coach House at the Willistead Park. We are testing this place for possible venue to hold our exec and general meetings.

Please come to our September general meeting and give us a feedback on this place!

This month's challenge is "Heavenly"

We need Your input

We are going to have elections in November— would you like to be a part of an executive committee? We welcome all your input and participation, any help/ advice/suggestion is appreciated!

Kudos to our volunteer executive committee members and other members who helped and supported our membership!

We are in need of members who could help us with website, membership, and other administrative duties.

Do you have any suggestions or ideas on how or what our workshops could be? Tell us :

what artist whose workshop you would like to attend, do you know anyone who would be of interest to our group to do a workshop

Or you have other suggestions or ideas

Here is the list of some ideas that our executive committee come up:

life drawing sessions —we could offer a monthly life drawing session with a model, suggested entry fee $5

group outdoor/indoor paintings— meet together for a 1-2 hour painting or sketching session of a place in the city, or a set up still life group organized visits to art galleries (Detroit Art Institute, Windsor Art Gallery, etc.), to art studios of professional local artists Reminder!

Please update your profile on our website! To update your photo, artwork images or any other information please contact Susan Duxter at

ART EXHIBITION & SALE

We welcome all our members to participate in our 4th Annual Holiday Art Exhibition and Sale at the Mackenzie Hall Cultural Centre. Our show was fantastic last year. What diverse and talented local artists we have. In these difficult times art must have a place in our lives. Windsor has so much to offer in arts and culture, and this exhibition is the opportunity to show that our community is alive and very strong.

Call for ARA Member Submissions
Artists are requested to follow these guidelines:

1. All exhibiting artists in this show must be ARA member in good standing.
2. Submissions limited to 4 paintings or less. Submission fee is $5 per painting and it includes one no cost additional miniature painting, up to 10 greeting cards (must be originals, no prints are acceptable).
3. Deadline, October 31, 2009, to return entry form with the submission fee paid should be respected.
4. To make this show a success, all participating members are expected to sign up for volunteer lists to staff shifts for the 4 days of the show. There will be lists for staffing, for help with hanging the paintings, for closing the exhibition---your support is appreciated very much!
5. Fundraising for ARA – ARA asks its members for a donation of a painting 8x10 inches. We will display these paintings during November general meeting. Three or five voted paintings will go for the silent auction during the show as a fundraiser. The money from the sale of these paintings will be used for our next year show.

Who is interested to participate, donate and organize the silent auction? Please let us know! We appreciate your support!
6. At the show we are going to have two display tables —one is for miniatures and cards, the other will display portfolios, promotional brochures of the artists and our 3-5 chosen paintings for a silent auction.
